

AMY K. BENNETT, J.D., C.P.A.
Chief Financial Officer
Fulfillment Fund

Ms. Bennett directs and manages the administrative and operational functions of the Finance Department of the Fulfillment Fund, with direct responsibility for the operating budget. She oversees financial management and ensures the accuracy and integrity of the financial systems and reporting. She is responsible for all financial reports distributed both internally and externally, including monthly financials, grant proposals and progress reports and quarterly Board and committee reports. She also manages the annual budgeting process, the mid-year reforecasts, the annual year-end financial statement audit and the annual Form 990 tax filing, as well as handling all regulatory filings with federal, state and local authorities.

Ms. Bennett brings a unique blend of financial and legal perspectives to her position at the Fulfillment Fund. Ms. Bennett holds a B.S. in Accounting from Indiana University and a J.D. from the UCLA School of Law. Ms. Bennett has been with the Fulfillment Fund since January 2005. Before coming to the Fulfillment Fund, she worked for the Los Angeles office of a large New York based law firm, specializing in transactional entertainment, real estate and tax law. While there, she was lead lender's council on numerous multi-million dollar conduit loans and assisted in all aspects of the corporate cycle for various entertainment and real estate investment entities.

Prior to obtaining her J.D., Ms. Bennett worked for KPMG, specializing in nonprofit and health care clients and obtaining her C.P.A. While at KPMG, she completed numerous financial and single audits for clients across Southern California, developing significant experience in nonprofit financial reporting issues.
