

The Friends of the Fulfillment Fund is an auxiliary support group established in 1991 by Cherna Gitnick, co-founder of the Fulfillment Fund. The mission of the Friends is to support the work of the organization through volunteerism, advocacy and fundraising.

In addition to attending events and raising funds on behalf of the Fulfillment Fund's many college access programs, the Friends support a number of projects and benefits, including the following:

THE JAN SHERMAN CARE PACKAGE PROGRAM

Twice a year during finals week, the Friends send Fulfillment Fund college students a care package filled with items such as notebooks, stationery, snacks, pens, Post-Its and Starbucks gift cards. Fulfillment Fund students are often the first in their families to go to college, and these packages express the Fulfillment Fund's pride in its students and extend good wishes for final exams.

HOLIDAY PARTY FOR CHILDREN WITH DISABILITIES

The Fulfillment Fund's annual holiday party for children with disabilities, chaired by Jan Goldman, brings together hundreds of children from all over Los Angeles for a memorable day of festive fun. The Friends assume the responsibility for planning and holding this long-standing event as part to their commitment to the Fulfillment Fund and the children.

THE SONGS OF OUR LIVES CONCERT

The Songs of Our Lives benefit concert is the brainchild of award-winning composer Charles Fox and Friends Board member Joan Fox. This highly anticipated annual event combines entertainment and philanthropy in a meaningful way to support the Fulfillment Fund's important work in the community.
